FROM PASTOR JIM

My time with you as your Bridge Pastor begins January 1st. I look forward to acquainting/reacquainting myself with all of you.

It was brought to my attention that the scripture reading for each Sunday was provided ahead of time in the newsletter. I am a lectionary preacher so weekly reading(s) will be chosen from the selection given in the newsletter. You are invited to read them each week and see how the spirit speaks to you before Sunday. I look forward to our time together.

See you Sunday, January 4th.

Pastor Jim

WELCOME PASTOR JIM BENZING

Welcoming a Servant Leader: The Ministry of Pastor James Benzing

We are blessed to introduce Pastor James Benzing, a man whose life and ministry are defined by a simple, powerful guiding principle: "We must pray as if it all depends upon God and act as if it all depends upon us."

A Foundation of Faith and Service

A native of Wapakoneta, Ohio, James's journey began at St. John United Church of Christ. From his early days in Sunday School to earning the rank of Eagle Scout in Troop 131, James developed a heart for "servant leadership." This calling led him to Heidelberg University and later to Eden Theological Seminary, where he was ordained in 1987.

For Pastor James, the ministry isn't just the job of one person at the pulpit—it is the calling of the entire congregation. He views his role as an "enabler," helping every member discover their own unique call to serve God's world.

A Legacy of Care

Throughout his career, James has served numerous communities across Illinois, including:

- St. John's UCC (Granite City), where he met his wife of 35 years, Deborah.
- Christ Memorial Church (Blue Island), where they welcomed their daughter, Rachel.
- Congregational Church of Algonquin, Immanuel UCC of Bartlett, and First Congregational Church of Carpentersville.

Beyond the church walls, James has served as an on-call chaplain at Advocate Sherman Hospital, providing comfort to those in their most vulnerable moments.

An Active Retirement

Though he "officially" retired in 2015, James remains a vital force in the Chicagoland area. He is a highly sought-after supply preacher and a beloved substitute teacher in local schools. Whether he is guiding a congregation through a transition or helping a student in the classroom, his charismatic energy and "contagious" kindness are always on display.

When he isn't serving the community, you can find James rooting for the St. Louis Cardinals, lost in a good book, or enjoying time with his family and dogs.

We will be starting "In Her Shoes" by Helen Steinkamp. This five-week study leading up to Easter gives us a fresh perspective as we trace the last days of Jesus' life through the eyes of four of his closest women followers and friends: Mary and Martha of Bethany, Jesus' mother Mary, and Mary Magdalene. By following their experiences through Jesus' life, death and resurrection, you will learn more about Jesus and more about his presence and purpose for your life. Reading material is available in the Church Office.

ALITH FOOD PANTRY

The Algonquin Lake in the Hills Interfaith Food Pantry relies entirely on the generosity of our community. The Pantry welcomes donations of food, personal hygiene products, and financial contributions. Monetary gifts are especially impactful, allowing them to purchase essential perishables—such as eggs, butter, cheese, and milk—as well as high-demand nonperishable items.

A list of current needs is posted in the Narthex. Or you may visit their website for a current list or to make an electronic monetary donation:

As a registered participant of the Northern Illinois Food Bank, the Pantry is able to purchase name brand, healthy non-perishable food at an extreme discount! $2 buys 8 boxes of name brand cereal. $10 buys a box of meat such as hamburger, chicken, etc.

FAIR TRADE

Fair Trade Sunday, January 11th
